mission of the

Saint of the Week

Saint John XIII was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli on November 25, 1881, in a small village in Italy. He was ordained in 1904 and later earned a doctorate in canon law. During World War I he served as a stretcher-bearer and chaplain for the Italian army. Beginning in 1925 he served as a Vatican diplomat, first in Bulgaria, then in Greece and Turkey. From 1935 through the Second World War he helped save thousands of Jewish people. In 1944 he was named papal nuncio to France. He was named cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953. A quiet pastoral life passing into retirement, however, was not in God's plan for the saint. Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was elected Pope in 1958 and took the name John. His papacy was short, but full of action. He transformed the Vatican, calling for openness, a spirit of ecumenism, and the setting aside of politics. He called the Second Vatican Council in the fall of 1962, the first meeting of its kind in almost a century, setting the agenda to work for the spiritual regeneration of the Church. His efforts changed the face of the Catholic Church. At the same time worked diligently and publicly to ease tensions during the Cuban missile crisis, pleading with leaders for the end of the Cold War. Saint John XXIII's kindness, sense of pastoral care, and works of reconciliation and peacemaking made him beloved not only to Catholics but to people around the world. He died on June 3, 1963. He was beatified in 2000 by St. John Paul II, and canonized by Pope Francis in 2014.

Parish Re-Engagement & Offertory Program

“Everyone who was willing and whose heart moved him, came and brought an offering to the Lord for the work.”
– Exodus 25:21

What we have done so far?

We recently announced at all the masses that our parish is embarking on a Parish Re-Engagement & Offertory Program.

Then, you received a mailing. We invite you to review the brochure, enclosed in the mailing, as it explains the reason, purpose, and goals of this important endeavor.

We encourage you to participate in our Parish Re-Engagement & Offertory Program, by responding to our most recent mailing.

What is next?

Last weekend was our Lay Witness Weekend. Your fellow parishioner shared the importance of the Sunday Collection and how you can participate in this effort, as well as their personal journey of being involved at the Cathedral Basilica.

Our In-Pew Weekend will take place the weekend of October 21-22.

By then, if you have not done so already, you will have an opportunity to make your commitment, by returning and completing your In-Pew Card, which will be provided at all the masses.

KIDS CORNER

Jesus cured 10 men who had bleeding sores all over their skin. As they walked away, they noticed that they were cured. Their sores were gone and their skin was smooth. Nine of them ran to show their families and friends. They were happy. Only one man went back to thank Jesus for curing them. God loves you. Thank him for your family and friends. Thank him for healing you and giving you everything you need.

PRAYER

Lord, please remind me to say, “Thank you.”

San Juan XIII nació Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli el 25 de noviembre de 1881 en un pequeño pueblo de Italia. Fue ordenado en 1904 y luego obtuvo un doctorado en derecho canónico. Durante la Primera Guerra Mundial sirvió como capellán y capellán del ejército italiano. A partir de 1925 se desempeñó como diplomático del Vaticano, primero en Bulgaria, luego en Grecia y Turquía. Desde 1935 hasta la Segunda Guerra Mundial ayudó a salvar a miles de judíos. En 1944 fue nombrado nuncio papal en Francia. Fue nombrado cardenal y patriarca de Venecia en 1953. Sin embargo, una vida pastoral tranquila que pasa a la jubilación no estaba en el plan de Dios para el santo.

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli fue elegido Papa en 1958 y tomó el nombre de Juan. Su papado fue corto, pero lleno de acción. Transformó el Vaticano, llamando a la apertura, un espíritu de ecumenismo y el abandono de la política. Convocó el Concilio Vaticano Segundo en el otoño de 1962, la primera reunión de este tipo en casi un siglo, estableciendo la agenda para trabajar por la regeneración espiritual de la Iglesia. Sus esfuerzos cambiaron el rostro de la Iglesia Católica. Al mismo tiempo, trabajó diligente y públicamente para aliviar las tensiones durante la crisis de los misiles en Cuba, suplicando a los líderes el fin de la Guerra Fría.

La bondad, el sentido del cuidado pastoral y las obras de reconciliación y pacificación de San Juan XXIII lo hicieron amado no solo por los católicos sino también por las personas de todo el mundo. Murió el 3 de junio de 1963. Fue beatificado en 2000 por San Juan Pablo II y canonizado por el Papa Francisco en 2014.

PROGRAMA DE COMPROMISO Y OFERTORIO

“Así que, que cada uno dé como propuso en su corazón, no de mala gana ni por necesidad; porque Dios es un dador alegre.” (2 Corintios 9:7)

¿Qué hemos hecho hasta ahora?

Recientemente anunciamos en todas las misas que nuestra parroquia se está embarcando en un Programa Parroquial de Compromiso y Ofertorio.

Tal vez ya habrá, recibido un correo. Lo invitamos a revisar el folleto, incluido en el correo, ya que explica la razón, el propósito y las metas de este importante esfuerzo.

Le animo a participar en nuestro Programa Parroquial de Re-Compromiso y Ofertorio, respondiendo a nuestro correo más reciente.

¿Cual será el próximo paso?

El fin de semana pasado escucho un testimonio Laico. Este matrimonio compartió la importancia de la Ofrenda Dominical y cómo ellos están participando en este esfuerzo, así como su caminar personal y involucramiento en la Catedral Basílica.

El fin de semana de Compromiso será el 21 y 22 de octubre.

Para entonces, si aún no lo ha hecho, tendrá la oportunidad de comprometerse, devolviendo y completando su Tarjeta, que se le entregará en todas las misas.
