Pilgrimage to D.C

BY PAULA CARBACA, KAREN GRANADOS AND SR. JOSEFA

PAULA:Walking with God is amazing, and even more when you are not alone. I had previously mentioned a couple of weeks ago that finally I discovered the reason why God wants me in this world, to refresh your minds, I am here to serve my community. There is a song in Spanish that talks about the path of life not being as I think, they are hard to walk through but I have concluded that with God and the Holy Spirit nothing is difficult. Thanks to our Lord we had the opportunity to do the pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington DC, this past Saturday. For the first time our beautiful Cathedral of the Secret Heart brought three buses. This pilgrimage as well as the one I did to Jerusalem changed the way I see Christ, my Father, our Father. The one who allows things to happen. I want to remind all the beautiful people that shared these little hours with me that we are blessed by our Father. I loved to see the faith that moves mountains, in this case the bus I oversaw. By our Lord's plan there was no inconveniences. Everything went better than I thought. I felt blessed for sharing an entire day with other parishioners or I should call them disciples of Jesus, my siblings. One more time I recognize that God is here with us in every moment, when he is happy his happiness is also ours. I felt this happiness in the couples look, families singing, friends smiling and over all children laughing. Because there is nothing better, satisfactory, and joyful than walking by the hand of our Lord because he is always with us in difficulties and sacrifices, so let's keep praying together in this pilgrimage to Heaven. Let God bless us all.

KAREN: On September 16, the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark along with other 60 parishes joined in the 50th anniversary of the Pilgrimage to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington. From the early hours of that Saturday morning, as a community we gathered on the stairs of our church, both children and older adults, families and young people, the emotion was present on every face. The personal purpose I had in mind for this pilgrimage was achieved without any precariousness. My goal was for people to have the opportunity to expand the meaning of God's love and as the day progressed people were able to experience it. The Sanctuary is a beautiful temple where the presence of God is seen and felt in every corner, families together in prayer, people having moments full of devotion on their knees in front of our Mother, those waiting in long lines for confession, let me tell you that God was there. Peace, devotion, unity, that is what differentiates us as Catholic Christians. To each one of you that accompanied us, I hope you all had an unforgettable experience.

Sr. Josefa: All pilgrimage are full of blessings not only for the pilgrim but for all families and friends. In a pilgrimage there is unity of enthusiasm, sacrifice and prayer. Looking for the encounter with Christ that is waiting for us with open arms. Is very satisfying to know that our pilgrims were very happy and full of faith, conscious of this trip not being touristic but to share and pray.

From the bottom of our hearts, we hope that this religious experience will not be the end of a pilgrim but the beginning to the encounter with our Father.

Pilgrimage to D.C

BY PAULA CARBACA, KAREN GRANADOS AND SR. JOSEFA

PAULA: El caminar con Dios es maravilloso, y más aún cuando se hace en compañía de más personas, había mencionado hace unas semanas que finalmente logré descubrir el motivo por el que Dios me quiere en este mundo, para refrescarles la memoria, estoy aquí para servir a mi comunidad. Así como dice la canción, los caminos de la vida no son como yo pensaba, son difíciles de caminarlos pero me he dado cuenta que con Dios y el Espíritu Santo nada es difícil. Gracias a nuestro Señor se llevó a cabo la peregrinación al Santuario Nacional de la Inmaculada Concepción en Washington el Sábado pasado, por primera vez nuestra bella Catedral del Sagrado Corazón logró llenar tres buses. Esta peregrinación al igual que la que había hecho a Jerusalén cambiaron mi forma de ver a Cristo, mi padre, nuestro padre. El mismo que permite que pasen las cosas. Quiero recordar a todas esas personas bellas que compartieron estas pocas horas conmigo que somos bendecidos por nuestro padre, me encanto ver esa fe que mueve montañas en este caso el bus del cual yo estaba al - mando. Por disposición de nuestro señor no hubo inconvenientes, todo se llevó a cabo mejor de lo que pensaba, me sentí muy bendecida por tener la dicha de compartir un día entero con los demás feligreses o debería decir discípulos de nuestro padre y hermanos míos. Una vez más reconozco que Dios está con nosotros en todo momento, y cuando se trata de su felicidad también es la nuestra. Lo vi reflejado en la mirada de las parejas, el cantar de las familias, la sonrisa de las amistades y sobre todo el reír de los niños que me acompañaron en este caminar. Porque no hay nada mejor, nada más alegre y satisfactorio que caminar de la mano de nuestro señor porque él está siempre con nosotros en momentos difíciles y sacrificados así que sigamos rezando y orando en esta peregrinación al cielo, que Dios nos siga bendiciendo.

KAREN: El 16 de septiembre, la Catedral Basílica del Sagrado Corazón de Newark junto a 60 parroquias se unieron en el 50 aniversario de la Peregrinación a la Basílica del Santuario Nacional de La Inmaculada Concepción en Washington. Desde muy tempranas horas de la mañana del sábado pasado, como comunidad nos reunimos en las escaleras de nuestra iglesia, tanto como niños y adultos mayores, familias y jóvenes, la emoción estaba presente en cada rostro. El propósito personal que tenía en mente para esta peregrinación se logró sin precariedades. Mi objetivo fue que las personas tuvieran la oportunidad de ampliar el significado del amor de Dios y a medida que el día iba avanzando la gente logró experimentarlo. El Santuario es un templo hermoso donde la presencia de Dios se ve y se siente en cada rincón, familias juntas en oración, personas teniendo momentos llenos de devoción de rodillas frente a nuestra Madre, aquellos esperando en largas filas para la confesión, déjenme decirles que Dios estaba allí. La paz, la devoción, la unidad, eso es lo que nos diferencia como cristianos católicos. A cada una de las personas que nos acompañaron de todo corazón espero que hayan tenido una experiencia inolvidable y remunerable y que sientan la necesidad de compartir su experiencia con otros.

Sr. Josefa: Todo peregrinaje esta lleno de muchas bendiciones no sólo para el peregrino sino para todos los familiares y amigos. En el peregrinaje se unen el entusiasmo, sacrificio y oración. En busca del encuentro a Cristo que nos espera con los brazos abiertos. Nos llena de alegría saber que todos los peregrinos estaban muy contentos llenos de fe, conscientes de que esto no era un viaje turístico sino de oración y compartir.

Desde el fondo de nuestros corazones, esperamos que esta experiencia religiosa no sea el fin de este caminar sino el principio al encuentro con nuestro padre.
