The Fisher's Hook

BY BONITA VEYSEY

CATHOLICS, COME HOME!

WHAT?! Did you see the Lou Holtz commercial during the Sunday Night Football game? We have a Catholic commercial! You gotta see it! This is one of several commercials that were created by Catholics Come Home.org. There is another one that you should also see.

When I was browsing the web on this topic, I came across a political controversy involving Coach Holtz. Frankly, I felt like someone punched me in the gut. I deleted everything I had written and went back to the drawing board, but nothing came to me. I kept getting the feeling that I needed to use this "hook" to discuss something. I thought the "something" was pretty straight forward, "Catholics, come home." It has become something much more complicated. God is good, and God knows what He's doing, so ... here we go.

As Catholics, should we be involved in politics? Absolutely. We have a civic and sacred responsibility to be actively involved in our communities and world.

Should politics be the driver of our faith? Absolutely not. Several years ago, I was thinking about how much my understanding of Catholicism had changed and evolved. I texted Fr. Bismarck and said, "When did I become a conservative Catholic?" and he responded, "You are not conservative. You have seen the truth." Ummmm.... That hit the mark. I was not joining a political party; I was embracing a 2000-year-old, continuous, and unbroken family of faith. I am a member of the community of sisters and brothers of Jesus and one of the children of our heavenly Father.

We are a single community. We cannot allow ourselves to be fractured into small hostile tribes. We MUST find a way to talk to each other, both within our Church and beyond. We need to have generous hearts to embrace uncomfortable conversations and to listen to each other with patience and love; to find places of kindness and acceptance. Let's find a way, pray to our Lord to help us find the common ground. Too much is at stake. We know this. Even now the enemy prowls "throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls." We cannot afford to give in to hopelessness. We have the MOST amazing gift! We know that God loves each and every one of us completely. We know He is always with us. We know that He constantly seeks us and begs us to let Him into our hearts. Why? So we can do what we were created for; to love Him with everything we've got and to love those around us. He wants all of us. Not just the Catholics. Not just the Christians. Everyone. So, if you find yourself slipping, find your way back to Him. If you know someone who has drifted away from the Church, bring them home. If you know anyone who has a hole in their heart that longs to be filled, let them know how much they are loved. They are welcome to come home, too.

El Anzuelo del Pescador

POR BONITA VEYSEY

¡Católicos, Vuelvan a Casa!

¿Viste el comercial de Lou Holtz durante el partido de Football el domingo? ¡Presentaron un comercial católico! ¡Tienes que verlo! Este comercial es uno de varios comerciales creados por CatholicsComeHome.org. Hay otro que también deberías ver:

Mientras navegaba por la web sobre este tema, me encontré con una controversia política que involucraba al entrenador Holtz. Francamente, sentí como si alguien me hubiera dado un puñetazo en el estómago. Borré todo lo que había escrito y trate de escribir algo nuevo, pero no se me ocurrió nada. Seguía teniendo la sensación de que necesitaba usar este "anzuelo" para discutir algo. Pensé que el "algo" era bastante sencillo: "Católicos, vuelvan a casa". Pero esto se ha convertido en algo mucho más complicado. Dios es bueno y Dios hace lo que está haciendo, así que... aquí vamos. Como católicos, ¿deberíamos involucrarnos en política? Absolutamente. Tenemos la responsabilidad cívica y sagrada de participar activamente en nuestras comunidades y el mundo. ¿Debería la política ser el motor de nuestra fe? Absolutamente no. Hace varios años, estaba pensando en cuánto había cambiado y evolucionado mi entendimiento del catolicismo. Le envié un mensaje de texto al P. Bismarck diciendo: "¿Desde cuándo me había convertido yo en una católica conservadora?" y él respondió: "No eres una católica conservadora. Solamente has visto la verdad". Mmmmm... Eso dio en el blanco. No me había unido a un partido político; si no que estaba abrazando a una familia de fe continua e inquebrantable de 2000 años de antigüedad. Soy miembro de la comunidad de hermanas y hermanos de Jesús y una de las hijas de nuestro Padre celestial. Somos una sola comunidad. No podemos permitirnos dividirnos en pequeñas tribus hostiles. DEBEMOS encontrar una manera de hablar unos con otros, tanto dentro como fuera de nuestra Iglesia. Necesitamos tener corazones generosos para abrazar conversaciones incómodas y escucharnos unos a otros con paciencia y amor; para encontrar lugares de bondad y aceptación. Encontremos un camino, oremos a nuestro Señor para que nos ayude a encontrar un terreno común. Hay mucho en juego. Esto lo sabemos. Incluso ahora el enemigo ronda "por todo el mundo buscando la ruina de las almas". No podemos darnos el lujo de rendirnos ante la desesperanza. ¡Tenemos el regalo MÁS increíble! Sabemos que Dios nos ama a todos y cada uno de nosotros por completo. Sabemos que Él siempre está con nosotros. Sabemos que Él nos busca constantemente y nos ruega que le dejemos entrar en nuestros corazones. ¿Para qué? Para que podamos ejercer aquello para lo que fuimos creados; amarlo con todo lo que tenemos y amar a quienes nos rodean. Él nos quiere a todos. No sólo los católicos. No sólo los cristianos. Todos. Entonces, si te encuentras resbalando, encuentra el camino de regreso a Él. Si conoces a alguien que se ha alejado de la Iglesia, tráelo a casa. Si conoces a alguien que tiene un agujero en el corazón que anhela ser llenado, hazle saber cuánto lo amas. Ellos también son bienvenidos a volver a casa.
