The Fisher's Hook

BY BONITA VEYSEY

GOD, SHOW ME A SIGN.

I was thinking about the Fisher's Hook and its premise today. The idea is that we encounter things every day that remind us of God. Common things, like a conversation, or a song, or a book passage, or a movie clip, sometimes remind us of the divine. I am now thinking I got this wrong. It's not the things that lead us to God. It's God who draws us to Him. The title is right. These things are the hooks, and the great fisher is God. Maybe, just maybe, God scatters the breadcrumbs around us hoping we will notice and follow; like Hansel and Gretel leaving a trail to lead them back home. I have been reflecting for some time on a passage from Exodus where Moses encounters God in the burning bush. The scripture reads,

"There the angel of the LORD appeared to him as fire flaming out of a bush. When he looked, although the bush was on fire, it was not being consumed. So Moses decided, 'I must turn aside to look at this remarkable sight. Why does the bush not burn up?' When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to look, God called out to him from the bush: 'Moses! Moses!' He answered, 'Here I am.'

Moses stops to look at the burning bush. It's what happens next that fascinates me. "When the LORD saw that he had turned aside, God called out to him." God did not reach out to Moses until after Moses turned aside. God left a HUGE loaf of bread in Moses' path hoping he would notice and follow it to its source. Of course, Moses did, and we are living the rest of the story.

I remember watching something and the narrator was talking about how God is known. The gist is that God is present everywhere. Did you ever think about what a miracle a single breath truly is? The stars in the sky, a baby's touch, gravity's pull on our oceans, the wind in the trees, a sunset, our ability to love and be loved. If you need a sign, you aren't paying attention. God showers us with signs. They're everywhere! We just need to stop long enough to see and follow them to their source - our great and wonderful God.

Thanks for coming to the Blessing of Animals 2023

El Anzuelo del Pescador

POR BONITA VEYSEY DIOS, ME MOSTRO UNA SEÑAL.

Hoy he estado pensando en el Gancho del Pescador y en su premisa. La idea es que todos los días nos encontramos con cosas que nos recuerdan a Dios. Cosas comunes, como una conversación, o una canción, o un pasaje de un libro, o un fragmento de una película, a veces nos recuerdan lo divino. Ahora pienso que me he equivocado. No son las cosas las que nos llevan a Dios. Es Dios quien nos atrae hacia Él. El título es correcto. Estas cosas son los anzuelos, y el gran pescador es Dios. Tal vez, sólo tal vez, Dios esparce las migas de pan a nuestro alrededor esperando que nos demos cuenta y le sigamos; como Hansel y Gretel dejando un rastro que les lleve de vuelta a casa. Llevo algún tiempo reflexionando sobre un pasaje del Éxodo en el que Moisés se encuentra con Dios en la zarza ardiente. La escritura dice, "Allí se le apareció el ángel de Yahveh en forma de fuego que salía de una zarza. Cuando miró, aunque la zarza ardía, no se consumía. Entonces Moisés decidió: 'Debo apartarme para contemplar este espectáculo extraordinario. ¿Por qué no se consume la zarza? Cuando Yahveh vio que se había apartado para mirar, Dios lo llamó desde la zarza: "¡Moisés! Moisés". Moisés respondió: "Aquí estoy".

Moisés se detiene a mirar la zarza ardiente. Es lo que sucede a continuación lo que me fascina. "Cuando Yahveh vio que se había apartado, Dios le llamó". Dios no se acercó a Moisés hasta después de que Moisés se apartara. Dios dejó una ENORME hogaza de pan en el camino de Moisés esperando que se diera cuenta y la siguiera hasta su fuente. Por supuesto, Moisés lo hizo, y estamos viviendo el resto de la historia.

Recuerdo que estaba viendo algo y el narrador hablaba de cómo se conoce a Dios. Lo esencial es que Dios está presente en todas partes. ¿Has pensado alguna vez en el milagro que es un simple aliento? Las estrellas en el cielo, el tacto de un bebé, la atracción de la gravedad sobre nuestros océanos, el viento en los árboles, una puesta de sol, nuestra capacidad de amar y ser amados. Si necesitas una señal, es que no estás prestando atención. Dios nos colma de señales. Están por todas partes. Sólo tenemos que detenernos lo suficiente para verlas y seguirlas hasta su fuente: nuestro gran y maravilloso Dios.
